Todo lo que debes saber sobre la ley LISMI y el Centro Especial de Empleo LYMA te puede ayudar (Artículos)

03, febrero

La ley LISMI, es el decreto pactado desde el día 7 de Abril de 1982, en el cual, se hace referencia a la integración de personas discapacitadas al mundo laboral. En concreto, es una ley que apoya, ayuda y vela por el buen trato, respeto y reinserción de personas discapacitadas a un trabajo digno.

Las siglas de la ley LISMI significan Ley de Integración Social del Minusválido. Como su nombre lo dice, esta ley busca un trato digno, respetable y equitativo para las personas discapacitadas, sin embargo, puede ser complicado llegar a cumplirla.

La ley LISMI, obliga a una empresa que cuente con una plantilla mayor a 50 empleados a contratar un 2% de personal discapacitado.

Hoy en día, es difícil encontrar empresas que cumplan con dicho decreto, por lo que a partir del año 2000, se incluyeron algunas modificaciones a la ley LISMI para que, de ese modo, las empresas puedan cumplir con dichas leyes, estas modificaciones son mejor conocidas como las medidas alternativas.

LAS MEDIDAS ALTERNATIVAS

Como se menciona, puede ser complicado cumplir con la ley por la complejidad de encontrar personal discapacitado, por lo que se recurrió a otros mecanismos de control. Estos mecanismos de control, ayudan a las empresas a cumplir los decretos de la ley LISMI de las siguientes maneras:

- Al comprar bienes a un centro especial de empleo para personas con discapacidad como LYMA.
- Al formalizar un contrato mercantil o civil con un Centro Especial de Empleo como LYMA , de manera que este pueda ejercer servicios ajenos a la actividad normal de dicha empresa.
- Acción de patrocinio.
- Donación.
- Al crear centros especial de trabajo para personas con discapacidad.

La ley LISMI busca igualdad y equidad, es por ello que lanzo estas medidas alternativas o mecanismos de control para velar por el cumplimiento de sus decretos y por la reinserción al mundo laboral de las personas minusválidas.

Contratando a un Centro Especial de Empleo como LYMA para la contratación de servicios externos a su empresa, como puede ser la limpieza de oficinas, esta cumpliendo con la LISMI, colaborando con una acción social como es la integración sociolaboral de discapacitados y recibiendo un servicio de calidad acorde a sus necesidades.

LYMA, con mas de 15 años de experiencia como Centro Especial de Empleo de Madrid, realiza una integración social y laboral de sus empleados con un trabajo igualitario para personas con discapacidad y una prestación de los servicios de calidad.

Trump said he was leaving the White House, the reason he turned back in one day U.S. President Donald Trump reversed his position on the 27th (local time) after a day after saying that he would leave the White House if President-elect Joe Biden wins in the elections vote on December 14th. In an article posted on Twitter that day, President Trump said, "Biden will be able to enter the White House as President only if he can prove that the ridiculous 80 million votes were not obtained illegally or illegally." President Trump insisted, "Looking at the massive voting scams in Detroit, Atlanta, Philadelphia and Milwaukee, he has a big problem that cannot be solved." President Trump also targets Twitter, Facebook, and the mainstream media, saying, "Big tech and fake news media are collusion to conceal." I said. "Even where is the Hunter?" he criticized the media for failing to properly report the suspicion that Biden's son, Hunter, benefited from serving as a Ukrainian energy company executive. In another post on Twitter,☐☐☐☐ President Trump said, "The 2020 election was a complete scam, and we won a lot," he said. "Hopefully, we will reverse that fraudulent outcome." President Trump had a meeting with reporters at the White House for the first time since his defeat in the presidential election the day before, and at this meeting, President-elect Biden said he would leave the White House if he wins the electoral vote, and made clear the deadline for his struggle against the presidential election. His remarks were the closest to acknowledging his defeat in the presidential election, and the US media reported that he made it clear for the first time that he would empty the White House from January 20 next year. President Trump seems to have reversed his position in one day, conscious of the final vote for the Georgia senator election, which will be held on January 5 next year. President Trump is trying to escalate tensions as he continues to struggle against the presidential election for the unity of Republican supporters, ahead of a run-off vote of two Georgian senators on the day of deciding which of the Democrats and Republicans will take the majority of the Senate. In an article posted on Twitter that day, President Trump emphasized the importance of the Georgia runoff vote and announced that he would visit Georgia in person on December 5th. In Georgia, US media reports have shown that Trump supporters are trying to boycott senator elections for alleged election fraud. If the Republican Party loses both candidates in the Georgia senator election, it loses its majority position in the Senate and cannot put a brake on Biden-elect's "clearing the Trump mark". However, as President-elect President Trump requested, there is no way to prove that Biden's 80 million votes were legally made,☐☐☐☐ and there is no legal obligation, Fox News, which has reported pro-Trump propensity, pointed out on the day. "President Trump posted a post on Twitter to question the results of the presidential election," Fox News said. Business Insider reported on the day that "President Trump has neither the authority nor the way to prevent Biden-elect from entering the White House." Major competition owners Georgia, Michigan and Pennsylvania have already completed the process of counting votes, confirming Biden's victory. President Trump is claiming a large-scale illegal election, but he is losing a row in a lawsuit. A lawsuit filed by President Trump in Pennsylvania to block the verification of the counts was also lost at the second federal trial. The Third Federal High Court in Pennsylvania dismissed a lawsuit filed by Trump Camp on the 27th to prevent President-elect Biden from being declared a winner. The judge said, "Free and fair elections are the lifeline of our democracy, and just because elections are unfair does not mean that it is." The judge strongly criticized the Trump presidential camp, which filed a lawsuit that "the charges require concrete arguments and evidence, but there is nothing here, and the camp's allegations are worthless."☐☐☐☐ The judge emphasized that "the president, not the lawyers, chooses the president." President Trump's camp announced its policy to appeal to the Supreme Court of the United States, disobeying the ruling of the high law. President Trump also headed to the golf course the day after Thanksgiving. The video
